

Present Simple 3rd Person (homework)

Primero, lee el texto-

On match day, usually Saturday or Sunday, James gets up late (=tarde) and prepares for the match. He goes to the training ground in the morning and the players do some warm-up (=calentamiento) exercises, practise free-kicks (=tiros libre) and plan the tactics again (=otra vez).

The players have lunch together (=juntos) and then take the team (=equipo) bus to the stadium. When the players get there (=allí), James signs (=firma) some autographs and takes photos with the fans. James doesn't usually start (=empezar) the match and sits (=se sienta) on the bench (=banco, banquillo).

When he plays, James doesn't feel (=sentir) nervous. He plays in attack and scores (=marca) once every three or four matches! His fans want to see (=ver) him play more (=más) often!
